

World-Wide Mustard Competition Awards Barhyte, Saucy Mama Gold, Silver Medals
Scores Top Honors in Organic, Spirit Mustard Categories

PENDLETON, Ore. (May 4, 2011) – Barhyte Specialty Foods and its signature brand, Saucy Mama, is adding more trophies to its case after this weeks’ announcement of the World Wide Mustard Competition winners. The Oregon-based company took the gold medal in the Organic category, with its Barhyte Select Organic Yellow Mustard, and nabbed a second gold for its private label Henry Weinhard's Pub Beer Mustard. The gourmet food experts further took home silver awards in the Herb/Veggie as well as the Fruit Categories with its Willamette Valley Dill Mustard and its Saucy Mama Apricot Ginger Mustard, respectively.

The National Mustard Museum hosted “An Evening of Mustard Royalty” on April 29, during which time winners were announced amidst a bounty of mustard-themed events and activities including the “Iron Mustard Chefs Challenge.”

Thanks to its increased emphasis on locally sourced, organic ingredients and the company’s dedication to continually expanding its allergy free offerings, Barhyte takes great pride in receiving recognition for its flavorful, satisfying Organic Yellow mustard. “We’re honored to know that Saucy Mama and Barhyte condiments rose to the top from a field of nearly 400 mustards. These awards are a true testament not only to our amazing staff and all of their hard work, but also to my mom [Suzie “Saucy Mama” Barhyte] and her extraordinary palette.”

ABOUT BARHYTE SPECIALTY FOODS

Barhyte Specialty Foods, based out of Pendleton, Oregon, has roots dating back 200 years and 6,000 miles away in Germany, where Jacobus Barhyte first created a sweet-and-sour mustard that he brought to the US. Many generations later, Jan and Susan Barhyte began selling mustard from the original recipe, as well as other signature creations, through their Swift and Martin Station Deli. Thanks to overwhelming demand, the family launched their own manufacturing operation in 1977. Today, the company offers more than 65 award-winning mustards, marinades, sauces, and other condiments through the Barhyte Specialty Foods and the Saucy Mama brand, as well as through co-branded and private label relationships.
