

Barhyte Earns More Honors in 2016 World-Wide Mustard Competition
Saucy Mama Tarragon Lemon Mustard claims first ever medal

Pendleton, Ore. (April 19, 2016) – Barhyte Specialty Foods is proud to announce that two new medals have been added to their trophy case, thanks to the 2016 World-Wide Mustard Competition, held at the National Mustard Museum in Middleton, WI.

The company's Saucy Mama Tarragon Lemon Mustard earned a silver medal in the Herb Category. This is the first ever award for this particular flavor, which is an exciting accomplishment. "We have some products that are proven favorites and win year after year," explains company CEO, Chris Barhyte. "We're excited that another flavor has been awarded; it's something we can tell our customers- both wholesalers and end consumers- to show that it's a great flavor."

Tarragon Lemon Mustard is bright and aromatic with fresh herbs, but also slightly sweet. It is wonderful on fish, chicken and vegetables.

In addition, Haus Barhyte Smoky Garlic Onion Mustard, which earned gold medals in 2013 and 2015, placed second this year in the Garlic Category. This is a classic flavor adored by longtime fans and is wonderful in barbeque sauces and used as a spread.

Since the event began in 1996, Barhyte Specialty Foods has earned more than 47 World-Wide Mustard Competition awards.

ABOUT BARHYTE SPECIALTY FOODS

Barhyte Specialty Foods, based out of Pendleton, Oregon, has roots dating back 200 years and 6,000 miles away in Germany, where Jacobus Barhyte first created a sweet-and-sour mustard that he brought to the US. Many generations later, Jan and Susan Barhyte began selling mustard from the original recipe, as well as other signature creations, through their Swift and Martin Station Deli. Thanks to overwhelming demand, the family launched their own manufacturing operation in 1977. Today, the company offers more than 65 award-winning mustards, marinades, sauces, and other condiments through the Barhyte Specialty Foods and the Saucy Mama brand, as well as through co-branded and private label relationships.
