

Barhyte Earns Silver Medal in 2018 World-Wide Mustard Competition
Fan Favorite Saucy Mama Dill Mustard Scores Well in Herb and Veggie Category

Pendleton, Ore. (April 18, 2017) –Barhyte Specialty Foods has nabbed another medal in the 2018 World-Wide Mustard Competition, held at the National Mustard Museum in Middleton, WI. Saucy Mama Dill Mustard, which is a longtime favorite for many customers, scored second place in the Herb and Veggie Category of this year’s competition. “Saucy Mama” is the company’s signature gourmet line and brand known on social media.

Saucy Mama Dill Mustard has won numerous medals in different competitions, including a first-place finish at both the 2014 Scovie Awards and the 2014 World-Wide Mustard Competition. In total, the company’s Dill Mustard flavor has won more than 10 awards.

“The Dill Mustard is one of our originals,” explained Suzie “Saucy Mama” Barhyte. “It is a delicious, classic flavor that is both unique and approachable. Our customers love it, and it’s fun to watch reactions of people trying it for the first time.”

Saucy Mama Dill Mustard works fantastically in canned tuna fish sandwiches and mixed into the filling of deviled eggs. It’s also wonderful with salmon.

Since the event began in 1996, Barhyte Specialty Foods has earned more than 50 World-Wide Mustard Competition awards.

ABOUT BARHYTE SPECIALTY FOODS

Barhyte Specialty Foods, based out of Pendleton, Oregon, has roots dating back 200 years and 6,000 miles away in Germany, where Jacobus Barhyte first created a sweet-and-sour mustard that he brought to the US. Many generations later, Jan and Susan Barhyte began selling mustard from the original recipe, as well as other signature creations, through their Swift and Martin Station Deli. Thanks to overwhelming demand, the family launched their own manufacturing operation in 1977. Today, the company offers more than 65 award-winning mustards, marinades, sauces, and other condiments through the Barhyte Specialty Foods and the Saucy Mama brand, as well as through co-branded and private label relationships.
