Pendleton, Ore. (May 25, 2019) – More than 300 different mustards from around the world were entered into this year's World-Wide Mustard Competition, and Barhyte Specialty Foods has earned three medals in three different categories.

Taking home the Gold in the Pepper (Mild to Medium) Category, Saucy Mama Chipotle Mustard has been a company and fan-favorite for years, although this is the first Gold Medal for this mustard.

“We’re thrilled to finally bring home a first-place finish for this item,” explains company CEO, Chris Barhyte. “It’s a delicious mustard that our employees and fans always rave about, so it’s nice to receive some accolades from the largest mustard competition in the world.” Saucy Mama Chipotle Mustard nabbed the Silver Medal at this competition in 2015.

Additionally, Saucy Mama Tarragon Lemon Mustard nabbed the Silver Medal in the Herb and Veggie Category, which it also won in 2016. Haus Barhyte Smoky Garlic Mustard claimed the Bronze Medal in the Garlic Category. This competition is a blind taste test with more than 50 judges.

Since the event began in 1996, Barhyte Specialty Foods has earned more than 53 World-Wide Mustard Competition awards.

ABOUT BARHYTE SPECIALTY FOODS

Barhyte Specialty Foods, based out of Pendleton, Oregon, has roots dating back 200 years and 6,000 miles away in Germany, where Jacobus Barhyte first created a sweet-and-sour mustard that he brought to the US. Many generations later, Jan and Susan Barhyte began selling mustard from the original recipe, as well as other signature creations, through their Swift and Martin Station Deli. Thanks to overwhelming demand, the family launched their own manufacturing operation in 1977. Today, the company offers more than 65 award-winning mustards, marinades, sauces, and other condiments through the Barhyte Specialty Foods and the Saucy Mama brand, as well as through co-branded and private label relationships.
